Bus Transportation Policy

Cambridge English School, Hawally

'Students achieving their full potential as active thinkers and self-motivated, life-long learners within a supportive environment.'

Introduction

This policy details the responsibilities and consequences for students who access the bus for transportation to and from school, ensuring their safety and security.

Everyone involved with bus transportation will adhere to the following responsibilities:

Student's Responsibilities:

- Students will respect the driver and maid.
- Students will not eat while on the bus.
- Students will respect the bus, leaving it in the same condition.
- Students will not deface the bus in any way.
- Students will ensure that rubbish is either placed in bins (if provided) or kept with them.
- Students will remain seated with their seat belts fastened until the bus comes to a complete stop and they are instructed otherwise by the driver or maid.
- Students will not put themselves or any objects outside of the bus through the window.
- Students will behave sensibly while lining up in the correct line and waiting for the bus.

Parent's Responsibilities:

- Parents will provide an up-to-date address.
- Parents will ensure their student(s) are ready to be collected by the bus.
- Parents of students who deface the bus will pay for the damage and agree that their child cannot access the bus until the damage has been paid for and the matter is settled.
- Parents will remind their students of all expectations of travelling on the bus, including the importance of wearing seatbelts.

Driver's Responsibilities:

- The driver and maid are in charge of the bus.
- The driver will ensure the safety and cleanliness of the vehicle.
- The driver will ensure the maid is collected first (am) and dropped off last (pm)
- The driver will ensure that all seats have working seat belts.
- The driver will drive in a safe manner, adhering to the laws of the road
- The driver will not depart until given clearance by the Supervising Teacher

Supervising Teacher's Responsibilities:

- The Supervising Teacher will ensure all Primary students are lined up sensibly inside before going to the bus.
- They will ensure only eligible students ride the bus.
- They will double check register of their designated bus before it departs.
- They will support the maid and driver in ensuring that all students are sitting properly with seatbelt fastened before departure.
- They will remind students of rules before departure.
- They will perform a cursory check of the condition of the bus before departure.

Maid's Responsibilities:

- The driver and maid are in charge of the bus.
- The maid will check that the bus is clean before the students access the bus.
- The maid (supported by the supervising teacher) will ensure all students wear a properly adjusted seatbelt.
- The maid will complete a Bus Staff's Witness Report Form promptly if necessary (Appendix A).
- The maid will ensure all students have exited the bus both at the end of the home-time route, and on arrival at school.

School's Responsibilities:

- School will investigate and decide consequences in-line with school's policies and procedures.
- School will contact parents regarding consequences in-line with school's policy and procedures (Appendix B, Appendix C, Appendix D, Appendix E and Appendix F).
- School will organise the students to access the bus at the end of the school day.
- School will liaise with the bus company to organise bus timings.
- School will liaise with the bus company to resolve any concerns or complaints regarding condition of buses, suitability of drivers.

Consequences:

Any student who fails to adhere to their responsibilities listed above will be subject to the following steps:

Step 1 – Student will receive a warning letter, that must be signed and dated by both the student and their parents then returned to school, and the appropriate School Counsellor will telephone the parents (Appendix B).

Step 2 – Student will not be able to access the bus for one day and a letter will be sent home, that must be signed and dated by both the student and their parents then returned to school, accepting responsibility and the resulting consequences (Appendix C).

Step 3 – Student will not be able to access the bus for three days and a letter will be sent home, that must be signed and dated by both the student and their parents then returned to school, accepting responsibility and the resulting consequences (Appendix D).

Step 4 – Student will not be able to access the bus for five days and a letter will be sent home, that must be signed and dated by both the student and their parents then returned to school, accepting responsibility and the resulting consequences (Appendix E).

Step 5 – Students will not be able to access the bus until their parents have attended a meeting to discuss incidents involving their child, accepting responsibility and deciding consequence – school reserves the right to ban children from accessing the bus at this stage for the health and safety of themselves and others (Appendix F).

It is a 'given' that all parties agree to adhere to this publicly available policy. In the event that an incident occurs and a warning letter is issued, then both parents and their students will sign the Bus Transportation Agreement (Appendix G), confirming they adhere to the responsibilities listed above and that they understand the consequences if their student further fails to adhere to these responsibilities.
